SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
WESTERN DIVISION

JAMES OBERGEFELL and JOHN ARTHUR,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

RICHARD HODGES, et al,

: Case No. 1:13-cv-501
: Judge Timothy S. Black
DECLARATION OF ALPHONSE A
GERHARDSTEIN IN SUPPORT OF REQUEST FOR ATTORNEY
FEES

Defendants.

I, Alphonse A. Gerhardstein, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746, declare under the penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct.

1. I was the lead attorney on this case for Plaintiffs John Arthur, James Obergefell, David Brian Michener, and Robert Grunn in Obergefell v. Hodes and the Plaintiff married couples Brittani Henry and Bryce (formerly Brittni) Rogers, Nicole and Pamela Yorksmith, Kelly Noe and Kelly McCracken, and Joseph Vitale and Robert Talmas in Henry v. Hodes.
2. This declaration supplements the declaration I filed in February 2014 (Doc. 70-1) which includes a copy of my vita.
3. The work done by associates Ms. Gonzalez Martin and Adam Gerhardstein, my staff, and me, was all necessary work on the case. The staff who worked this case include law clerks, paralegals, and law graduates. Based on my background, nearly 40 years of experience and skill, the hours requested in the fee application for Gerhardstein & Branch attorneys and staffs have been necessarily expended.

4. After Defendant Hodges appealed the decisions in both Obergefell and Henry, the Sixth Circuit consolidated the cases for argument but maintained separate briefing schedules on appeal. Once the cases were consolidated on appeal the legal research, legal theories, briefing, and arguments overlapped. The work all the attorneys did on both cases was necessary. Legal work was divided among team members so that the person best suited for the assignment was responsible for the work. For example, Ms. Sommer of Lambda took the lead on drafting the Henry briefs in the Sixth Circuit given her writing skills and experience. The ACLU took the lead on drafting the Obergefell briefs in the Sixth Circuit. The petition for certiorari, and the merits briefing in the Supreme Court also reflects very heavy input from the excellent attorneys at LAMBDA and the ACLU. Law clerks were given tasks best suited for their skill level. Each of the attorneys was incredibly efficient in their billing practices, minimizing duplication when all attorneys need to communicate together or participate in drafting, editing, and strategizing on the case.

5. All work was coordinated with the ACLU and Lambda attorneys. In addition, we needed to coordinate the work on Obergefell and Henry with the litigation teams from Tennessee, Kentucky and Michigan. The ACLU attorneys were also co-counsel in the Kentucky case, so their time that was devoted to both cases is equally split between Obergefell and Bourke v. Beshear.

6. At the Supreme Court level there was a significant amount of work to do in a very short period of time given that our petition for certiorari needed to be filed within eight days of the Sixth Circuit issuing its decision if we were going to obtain Supreme Court review during the 2014 term. At times multiple attorneys were in communication with each other via phone calls and emails. Much of the time for these communications was not even billed, but all of it was necessary. Multiple attorneys participated in drafting and editing critical documents and in preparing for oral argument. All of this time was necessary as well given the wide range of expertise among the ACLU and Lambda attorneys and the rapidly evolving state of the law. During the pendency of the appeals state court judges, district court judges and circuit court judges were issuing decisions all over the country. As these cases were analyzed by our team, our strategy and theories were amended to incorporate or respond to the evolving law. In addition, over 130 amicus briefs were filed in the Supreme Court alone. These briefs needed to be read and addressed in our briefing and arguments. Given the amount of work that needed to be done in such a short amount of time the hours put in by the attorneys and staff in Obergefell and Henry were all very reasonable.

7. Hundreds of hours of time have not been included in the fee petition. This includes time spent by attorneys from the ACLU, Lambda, me, and others who did not bill for every call, email, or short task. In addition, although considerable time was spent with the media educating Ohioans and the public on what the various decisions meant in our cases, we chose not to include those hours in this petition. Additionally, we have not included any time for Douglas Hallward-Driemier, or his firm Ropes & Gray LLP. Mr. Hallward-Driemier was the oralist who argued the case in the Supreme Court on Question 2 which involved the marriage recognition arguments in Obergefell, Henry, Tanco v. Haslam (the Tennessee case), and Bourke v. Beshear (the Kentucky case). Since Mr. Hallward-Driemier was the counsel of record in the Supreme Court for the Tanco plaintiffs, they will request his time in their fee petition (which is not yet filed).

8. A fee enhancement is appropriate in this case because of the results achieved in Obergefell and Henry, which resulted in a landmark Supreme Court decision holding that the Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution prohibited states, including Ohio, from recognizing same sex marriages. The same arguments that supported reversal in Obergefell and Henry supported the second holding that the Fourteenth Amendment requires states, including Ohio, to license same sex marriages. These results were life changing for Jim Obergefell and David Michener who wanted their marriages to be valued after their husband's death. The results were life changing for the parents and children in the Henry case. More importantly, Obergefell changed the lives of thousands of parents and their children throughout Ohio and the entire country.
9. I have represented LGBT people for over 30 years. This is not easy work. While I am used to representing unpopular people, these cases attract negative attention and are undesirable to many litigators. Our office received negative hate mail during the litigation, including from supporters of LGBT rights who were angry we appealed. There was a concern the Supreme Court would rule against us and thus un-do all the positive results across the circuits. The undesirability of the cases also supports a fee enhancement.
10. The fees requested for all attorneys comport with and are reasonable in light of the factors contained in Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct 1.5 insofar as they accurately reflect the time and labor required in the prosecution of this matter, the difficulty of the questions involved, the skill required to perform the work properly, comport with the fees customarily charged by others for similar legal services, and are appropriate in light of the results obtained.

11. My billing rate was $400 per hour from January 2007 until April 2012. It increased to $450 in April 2012 and to $475 per hour in May 2015.
12. The rates for the paralegals are $100 per hour. Law graduates are people who graduated from law school but have not passed the Ohio bar exam or who are employed as non-lawyers. The law graduate rate is $130 per hour. Law clerks are billed at $85 per hour.
9. I exercised billing judgment at the time the work was recorded and did not record every short assignment, email, conversation, or phone call. I have reviewed each time entry and made a good faith effort to exclude hours that are excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary. Thus, compensation is not sought for all the work performed. All staff are instructed to exercise billing judgment at the time the work is recorded and are supervised by me in this regard. Not all time worked on the case has been billed. All my time entered on the case contemporaneous with the work done.
10. Plaintiff requests fees for work done by Gerhardstein & Branch on the case as shown in Exhibit 1.
11. The total expenses Gerhardstein & Branch advanced for Obergefell are $26,591.42 and for Henry are $900.75. These numbers are documented on the last pages of the time sheets attached as Exhibit 1. In addition, G&B incurred $184.35 in copy costs that are not reflected in Exhibit 1. Receipts and other proof of expenses are available on request. This number includes the expenses requested in the first fee motion, Doc. 70. In addition, the Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) ordered Plaintiffs to recover SCOTUS clerk costs of $900 and costs for printing of the record of $25,875. The Obergefell and Henry Plaintiffs are allocated one-third of these costs. Thus, in addition to the costs the firm advanced, Plaintiffs also seek an award of SCOTUS costs in the amount of $8,925.00. The total expenses G&B request is $36,601.52.
